

SHORT COURSE AT AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE

For Dairymen, Orchardists, and Farmers—Held in January.

Subjoined is the announcement for the Short Course in Agriculture and Special Dairy Course that is to be given in January at the Oregon State Agricultural College.

The expense of taking these short courses at the Agricultural College is very small, and it would be the best investment that a Rogue River farmer could make to go himself, or send his son, to Corvallis and gain the practical ideas that are enabling the modern farmer to make his farm pay a better dividend than does the average town investment.

The Oregon Agricultural College at Corvallis will offer this Winter, as usual, two special courses along agricultural lines, which will be designated The Short Course in Agriculture, and The Special Dairy Course.

The Short Course in Agriculture will open on Monday, January 8, 1906 at 9:00 a. m., and continue two weeks, closing on Friday, January 20. The course consists of a series of popular lectures along lines suited to aid horticulturists, dairymen, and others engaged in agricultural pursuits in developing the great natural resources of our State.

The special Dairy Course will also open on January 8, 1906, and will continue six weeks, closing on February 16, 1906. The purpose of this course is to familiarize students with the modern forms of dairy apparatus, and teach the underlying principles of the production, care and manufacture of milk into butter and cheese.

Students will meet for work on six days per week. The forenoon of each day will be devoted to practical work in the dairy rooms. In the afternoon of each day, except those devoted to cheese making, lectures and recitations will occupy the time during two or three hours.

In addition to the regular teaching force, the services of an expert cheese maker, Mr. W. W. Grant, have been secured. Mr. Grant is at present instructor in the California Dairy School, and has had a wide experience as traveling dairy instructor in Canada.

There will be no charge for tuition, and no educational entrance requirements, for either of these courses. Board and room can be had in Corvallis at $3 to $4 per week.

A cordial invitation is extended to all persons interested to enroll in one of these courses. An outline of the course can be had or the asking. For further information address, F. L. KENT, Corvallis, Oregon.

TOPOGRAPHIC SURVEY OF GRANTS PASS QUADRANGLE

Shows Every Landscape Feature—Valuable Map For Miners and Others.

The field work for the Grants Pass quadrangle was completed last week when J. I. Gayetty completed his work near Kerby. Saturday Mr. Gayetty arrived in Grants Pass and paid off his crew. Tuesday he shipped his equipment to Sacramento, which is the headquarters for the United States geological survey work for the Pacific Coast. He left himself for Sacramento, Wednesday, accompanied by Mrs. Gayetty, who has been in Grants Pass the last four months while Mr. Gayetty has made this city his headquarters. As to whether he would be sent to Arizona to do field work or assigned to office work at Sacramento or in Washington for the winter Mr. Gayetty did not know.

Unless special work demands it, it is the rule for the topographers of the geological survey to plat up their work during the Winter months that they have done during the previous Summer.

The Grants Pass quadrangle covers a half degree of latitude and a half degree of longitude and embraces about 900 square miles of territory, extending north from the California line, and of which Grants Pass is the center. The field work on this quadrangle was begun last year, when a party of levelmen took the height of all important elevation, and another party, called traversemen, platted all the railroads, wagon roads and trails. This spring six other parties took the field, each composed of a topographer and his assistants, and they completed the topographical data. The entire notes and plats made by these eight parties has been sent to Washington where they will be used in getting up a topographical map of Southern Oregon.

This map will show all water courses from rivers to the smallest ravines, lakes, canals and ditches, all elevations from the lowest hill to the highest mountains. The surface features will show the heavy timber, open timber, brushland, prairies, plains, swamps, farms, etc., and railroads, wagon roads, trails, towns, farm houses, school houses and other isolated buildings. Mines, tunnels, bridges will be given, in fact every important landscape feature will be shown. These maps are gotten out by the United States geological survey department and are for the use of the government, but especially for the war department and for the land and forestry bureaus and for the geological and mineralogical surveys. These maps are sold to private individuals at 5 cents each. It will be about a year before the map of the Grants Pass quadrangle is ready for publication and distribution.

This topographical survey is one of the big undertakings of the general government and it was begun more than 50 years ago and will continue until all sections of the United States and of Alaska, Hawaii, Porto Rico, Philippines, Guam, Tutilla and all other lands under American control have been surveyed. Only a small part of Oregon has been surveyed, the most important sections now being platted and the other quadrangles will be made up from year to year as the work can be executed.

I have a cash customer for a 6 or 8-room house in good condition, on North side of track. Price must be close. W. L. Ireland, The Real Estate Man.

The week's engagement comes to a successful close Saturday night.

PORTLAND BUSINESS MEN TO VISIT GRANTS PASS

Preparations Being Made to Give Them a Cordial Reception Next Wednesday.

Grants Pass is making every preparation to receive, in a manner befitting a live, progressive town, the Portland business men who will visit this city next Wednesday afternoon.

There will be nearly 100 of these visitors, and among them will be representatives of all the big interests centered in the metropolis of Oregon, for there will be railroad men, bankers, wholesale men, newspaper men, manufacturers and men of other vocations having dealings with the various sections of the state. The object is to learn more of the resources of Oregon and to strengthen the ties of acquaintance and friendship between the business men of Portland of the towns of the state.

A meeting was held Wednesday afternoon at the parlor of the First National Bank under the auspices of the Municipal League to arrange for the reception of the Portland business men's excursion which is due here at 3:15 p. m. next Wednesday. The meeting was presided over by Rev. J. B. Travis, president of the Municipal League and H. L. Gilkey was made secretary. A goodly number of the business men of the city were present and after an informal talk as to methods of receiving and entertaining the visitors it was decided to leave all arrangements to a committee which was named for the purpose and composed of President J. B. Travis, of the Municipal League, Mayor George Good, County Judge J. O. Booth, President C. L. Mangum, of the Miners Association and President R. Thomas of the Board of Trade. The Women's Club was invited to appoint a committee to act with this committee. The meeting adjourned to meet Monday at 4:30 p. m. at the Bank parlors to hear the report of the committee and to make any further arrangements that may be necessary. A reception committee embracing all the leading citizens of the city will be appointed to be at the depot and to receive the guests and to show them every courtesy that their visit to Grants Pass may be pleasant and profitable.

Grants Pass is to have another mercantile establishment to be known as the Rogue River Coffee Market. It will be conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. J. G. Smythe. The stock will embrace a fine line of China ware, Japanese goods, coffee, tea, spices, baking powders, condensed milk, etc. All goods will be strictly high-grade and the prices will be right. The business will be located in the Palace Hotel block in the store room lately occupied by Lee's fruit stand. Mr. G. Smythe returned Thursday from San Francisco where he bought his goods and fixtures and he expects to open about December 1st. Mrs. G. Smythe has had nine years experience in mercantile work and will assist Mr. G. Smythe in keeping one of the most attractive and up-to-date stores in Southern Oregon.

Webfooters Harbingers of Rain. Southern Oregon is having one of the driest falls for years and farmers and placer miners are sorely in need of rain and big rains at that, the farmers so that they can sow and put in their fall crops and the placer miners so that the streams will raise and they can begin to wash out gold.

It is claimed though, by those who are posted, that Rogue River Valley is to be drenched with heavy rains next week for a hundred Webfooters are to visit the Valley next Wednesday in the business men's excursion from Portland. Long observation has confirmed the fact that every time Webfooters in any numbers visit "The Italy of America" they are greeted with rains that would do credit to their own land of showers and of flowers and of green moss and green hills. Southern Oregon badly needs the rain, so welcome to the Webfooters, and may they come often.

W. C. T. U. Column

All matter for the column is supplied by the Grants Pass Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

The W. C. T. U. column in the Courier has been filled the past two weeks with report of State Convention. Perhaps it is not too late now to say that Mrs. L. P. Rounds, State Evangelist and Superintendent of the department of Mercy and Pence gave us two lectures on October 20 which were helpful and much enjoyed. It is a cause for thankfulness that so many noble women, insired with love for humanity are going about helping to make the world better.

Our regular meeting held November 8 at the Baptist church was quite well attended. Mrs. Bower of the Christian church conducted devotional exercises. After the business had been dispensed with, Mrs. Wade was asked to tell of the convention and gave some incidents not printed in the Courier, some articles from the "White Ribbon Review" were read and Mrs. Cowdry recited a beautiful and touching poem.

Arrangements were made for a lecture by Mrs. Caffie Howe, of St. Joseph, Mo., to be given on Monday night, November 13, the place to be announced in pulpits next Sunday. All are invited and we are sure of a great treat. Mrs. Howe is an exceptionally bright, interesting speaker, full of enthusiasm for the great cause she represents. Come and bring your friends. Let us give her a full house and be ourselves greatly benefited by hearing this talented woman.

We doubt if a more talented lecturer ever stood before our people, and her lectures were grand and captured the universal praise of our people—The New Enterprise, Marksville, La.

Mrs. Callie H. Howe certainly did justice in this city to the cause she so ably represented. Her visit to Eureka Springs will be long remembered.—Eureka Springs (Ark.) Daily Times-Echo.

All present were delighted with the stirring appeal of this earnest Christian woman for the cause of temperance, to which she is devoting her time and her splendid talents.—Mobile (Ala.) Daily.

To meet Mrs. Howe is to love and esteem the woman, to hear her is to acknowledge her power for good in her influence upon the mind instructed to her guidance.—Marksville (La.) New Enterprise.

The lectures delivered by Mrs. C. H. Howe, of St. Joseph, were strong and convincing, her manner at once commanding and pleasing. Taking her at all points she is a very strong platform lecturer.—Ridgeway (Mo.) Journal.

This question has been in all our minds these closing months and now the answer comes: Grants Pass! Grants Pass!! Grants Pass!!!

Actually, four separate and distinct honors, two carrying prizes, have fallen at the feet of Grants Pass. First in our benefit night for highest gain of membership for the county—Grants Pass, Josephine County. First in our beloved State President's personal gift of a life membership to the Local Union gaining the highest number of new members over 40; Grants Pass gained 60 new members. First in our best press report. First in our highest number of subscriptions to Union Signal. And so it went. Four times the boom from the winning post peeled forth as the Grants Pass colors passed the rubicon.

Some of us knew Grants Pass before the Convention. All of us now have a wholesome respect for that new old Union. Surely the almost first appearance the practical debut of our Southern White Ribbon belle will remain in our thoughts for many a long day. We are all one in our loving acclamation of praise in honor of our young sister, but a word in her ear: Let her look to her laurels, we are hot and eager in the chase for the coming honors. Surely it will go hard with us if next Convention sees four prizes fall at the feet of the Southern belle.

Our beloved editor and chieftain asks for a snap shot of what bulged in my vision of our convention at The Dalles of happy memory. This, without doubt—its deep spirituality, that kernel of all real serviceableness, that in God we live and move and have our being; that we may and must learn how to (not) drink and to whatsoever our hands find to do to His glory. This thought this attitude was kept living in our backward look over the way the Lord had led His people, for such we are, and also to our onward look for the future.—White Ribbon Review.

Little Tots Are Entertained.

A "baby party" was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Stovall Thursday afternoon. Baby Stovall being host. A chattering, prattling, but very jolly time was had, and barring a few slight hair-pullings nothing serious occurred. None of the babies were over 16 months, and the greater number were less than one year of age. An even dozen tots were invited but illness prevented two from being present.

Baby Stovall wore his best bib and tucker, as well as his prettiest smile. His home was decorated with pink streamers and white chrysanthemums, the streamers being gaily suspended from the chandeliers to the several plates set about the dining table. A heaping basket of rattles was set before the guests, and each selected one for himself. Thus armed all were set on the floor and the fun commenced. Each was also given a doll and a photo of the host as a souvenir of the occasion.

Refreshments of cheese-straws, stuffed figs, cake and fruit punch was served the mothers of the babies. Those present were Baby Barnes, Baby Bates, Baby Lister, Baby Stricker, Baby Lucas, Baby Coe, Baby Booth, Baby Edwards, Baby Meade.

MARRIED.

FIREBAUGH—WILLIAMS—At the Newman M. E. church parsonage, in this city, on Saturday, November 4, 1905, J. L. Firebaugh and Miss Georgia Williams, Rev. C. O. Beckman officiating.

The bride was one of Grants Pass' most popular young ladies, she having spent the greater part of her girlhood in this city and has many friends here who wish her a long and happy married life. Mr. Firebaugh is foreman of the Chicago Portrait Company, and he and Mrs. Firebaugh left Sunday morning for Portland where they will reside.

AUSTIN—WOOLFORD—At Redding, Cal., October 21, 1905, J. H. Austin and Isabella Woolford.

Mr. Austin is the well known attorney at Kerby, while his bride is a California lady, who has resided at Kerby for several months past and has made many friends who with the host of friends that Mr. Austin has in this county, join in wishing them a happy, prosperous married life.

DIED.

MORRIS—At the family residence in Grants Pass on Sunday, November 5, 1905, J. L. Morris, aged 55 years.

The funeral services were held Tuesday, conducted by the Masons, of which order he had been a member, with interment in the Masonic cemetery. He was also a member of the Odd Fellow, Workmen and Modern Woodmen. Mr. Morris came to Grants Pass a year ago from Kansas for his health he having weak lungs, but the change of climate did not bring the relief hoped for. He was a partner of W. M. Smith in a cigar store. He leaves a wife and four small children to mourn the loss of a kind husband and father.

MOORE—At Wilbur, Ore., November 2, 1905, Mrs. Sarah Ann Moore, aged 81 years.

Mrs. Moore was one of the pioneers of Josephine county, and her husband, the late J. J. Moore, settling on a farm on Rogue river near the mouth of the Applegate in the '50's. This fine farm they sold to H. B. Miller and a few years since Mrs. Moore went to reside with her daughter Mrs. Grant Ames, near Wilbur. Mrs. Moore is survived by six children, Mrs. Martha Jess of Wilderville, Sleton D. Moore, Selma, Edward E. Moore, Mrs. C. J. Willis and Mrs. Rebecca Hart of Portland, Mrs. Grant Ames, Mrs. Sarah Ames and Mrs. Mary Woolcott, of Wilbur, and Mrs. Elizabeth Simonds, of California.
